

2019 Calisthenics Victoria Volunteer Awards

Closing date: Friday 17th April 11pm

The Calisthenics Victoria Volunteer Awards recognise and honour outstanding individuals who are making a significant contribution to Calisthenics across Victoria. For the purpose of these awards, volunteering is defined as:

- To be of service to local and state calisthenics and affiliated associations
- Volunteer for a Victorian affiliated calisthenics club / college
- Volunteer for no financial payment

Club Volunteer of the Year

The Club Volunteer of the Year award is designed to recognise an individual who has shown true commitment and dedication to their calisthenics club / college in a volunteer capacity. The selection panel will consider:

- How they are making a difference to their local calisthenics community
- Their contribution to building a strong culture for club members to enjoy
- Outstanding contribution that goes 'above and beyond' the nature of the volunteer role

Joy Smith Calisthenics Victoria Volunteer of the Year

The Joy Smith Calisthenics Victoria Volunteer of the Year award is designed to recognise an individual who has shown true commitment and dedication to Calisthenics Victoria in a volunteer capacity. Joy Smith was a humble, dignified woman who exemplified the true meaning of volunteering with a love for her sport and state. The selection panel will consider:

- Scope of contribution across the broad calisthenics community – local, district and state level
- Impact on competitions, committees and sport development
- Outstanding contribution that goes 'above and beyond' the nature of the volunteer role

Wayne Jones Service to Calisthenics

The Wayne Jones Service to Calisthenics Award is presented to an individual who has shown dedication and ongoing commitment to the sport of calisthenics, named after Wayne Jones, a man who embodied these qualities. The selection panel will consider:

- Scope and nature of contribution
- Impact on the calisthenics community
- Outstanding contribution that goes 'above and beyond' the nature of the volunteer role
